

Capital Appearance—The Beatles performed for a youthful audience in Washington on the night of February 12.

Opening for Juniors—These college juniors joined the Peace Corps' new summer project for six to eight weeks of training similar to that for regular Peace Corps volunteers. They later did surveying work near Taos, N.M. After graduation they will be sent to Latin America.

Ranger on Target—This is a photograph of the lunar surface taken by the Ranger 7 spacecraft prior to its impact on the moon July 31st. The area shown is about one and two-thirds miles on a side. The smallest craters are about 30 feet in diameter and 10 feet deep. Some of the large craters are about 300 feet in diameter.

Family Grieves—Gust Carlson, father of Dr. Paul Carlson, medical missionary slain by rebel troops in the Congo, dabbed at his eyes during a news conference in Los Angeles on November 24. He is flanked by his daughter and another son.

New Teen-Age Queen—Smiling Carolyn Mignini, 17, of Baltimore was crowned the new Miss Teen-age America of 1965 in Dallas on November 13.

World's Fair at Night—The New York World's Fair attracted as many visitors at night as it did during the day following its April opening. The nighttime lights set off the beautiful pavilions constructed by many countries.

Democratic Victor—President Lyndon Johnson won the 1964 election by the greatest plurality and per cent of the total vote in U. S. history. Johnson became President at the assassination of John F. Kennedy in 1963.

Barry's Battle for Votes—Sen. Barry Goldwater was surrounded by fans at Knoxville, Tenn., airport September 16 as he campaigned for the presidency on the Republican ticket. The conservative senator swept to a first-ballot nomination at the convention in San Francisco.

National Events in Review—1964

Cards are the Winners—Roger Craig leaped on a group of teammates surrounding the pitcher Bob Gibson moments after the last out in the seventh World Series game won by the Redbirds over the Yankees, 7-5, in St. Louis.

I'm the Greatest—Cassius Clay whooped it up with his handlers after he won the world heavyweight title in Miami Beach in February. He was credited with a technical knockout of Sonny Liston when Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round.

Alaskan Quake—A whole line of cars rested about 20 feet below street level on a main thoroughfare in Anchorage the day following the disastrous earthquake on March 27.

Our Class History

Dirk Messelaar

Our class has justly been called the most unified class ever, for, throughout our four years of high school, we have made a concerted effort to band together in every endeavor.

Entering our freshman year, we were greeted by our former seventh-grade principal, Mr. Rogers. The adjustments, that year, were many. For one thing, we had to acclimate ourselves to the change in hours — from afternoon classes to morning classes. In addition, we had to be the doormat class in contrast to our supreme position as eighth-graders. However, after becoming familiar with the new atmosphere of high school, we were on our way towards maturity and the realization of the responsibilities of life.

Many of our class will always remember the almost frightening experience we all encountered in French class, as well as the number of students who never made it past French I.

A high point of our first year was our unique Madhatter's Dance in Treadwell Auditorium.

Our class was held together by President Wayne Clark at the helm. Other officers elected that year were Stanley Olech, vice-president; Susan Achramowicz, secretary; and Richard Super, treasurer. Representatives to the Student Council included Wayne Clark, Sherry Pedrick, Joyce LaBrie, Donna Stansfield, and Pamela Smyth.

A very rewarding year came to an end all too soon, but we looked forward to an even better one our sophomore year.

After a wonderful summer, we returned to the old high school — to walk through its halls for the last time as students. Except for the new teachers and classes, the routine was much as it had been the previous year.

Unal Michiyazgan, an American Field Service student from Turkey, attended I.H.S. that year and added color to our school life.

The theme of our class dance centered around Valentine's Day.

Class officers our sophomore year were Raymond St. Pierre, president; Stanley Olech, vice-president; Susan Achramowicz, secretary; and Pamela Smyth, treasurer. We were represented in Student Council by Raymond St. Pierre, Donna Stansfield, Steven Hughes, John Field, and Joyce LaBrie.

Our junior year proved to be quite different from our first two years. We had not only the excitement of entering a new school but also the privilege of having a normal school day. However, we were somewhat apprehensive in leaving the old, traditional school for the strange, rambling, one-story building and its unfamiliar, and seemingly unfriendly, surroundings. We soon adjusted as we took advantage of the spaciousness and the time for extracurricular activities.

Our American Field Service girl was from Costa Rica. Madeline Sanchez-Ma will be well remembered, as she became very active in school life.

During that year our class officers were Raymond St. Pierre, president; Wayne Clark, vice-president; Pamela Smyth, secretary; and Nancy Grose, treasurer. Representing us on Student Council were Raymond St. Pierre, Steven Hughes, Donna Stansfield, Mary Yarfellow, and Wayne Clark.

An exciting event occurred in October, when we received our class rings for which we'd waited so long.

Sports-wise, we had a good year. The football team, winning its first four games, ended the season with a 5-3 record. The hoopsters had a more than successful season, making the Tech Tournament and holding out until the second game. How many will ever forget the great win over Masconomet, our undefeated rival?

Spring soon came and, with it, our first formal class dance. A unified effort by all the juniors brought about a beautiful and impressive Junior Prom, under the skillful guidance of Mrs. Lovely and the chairmanship of Donald Hyde. The theme was Japanese — "Island of the Inland Sea."

With numerous activities to keep us busy, the year passed very quickly.

We started our senior year with the knowledge that this was our last year together after twelve years. Because of this, a cloud of sentiment has hung over us throughout the year.

As in the past three years, class officers were elected early in the year. To guide us this year we've had Raymond St. Pierre, president; Wayne Clark, vice-president; Pamela Smyth, treasurer; and Cathleen Saulnier, secretary. Wayne Clark, Raymond St. Pierre, Sidney Noe, Pamela Smyth, and Steven Hughes were our delegates to Student Council.

Also in the fall, we chose a Steering Committee to make decisions concerning the many problems and questions dealing with graduation and other senior activities.

Co-captains Ray St. Pierre and John Poirier led their "green" team to a highly commendable 5-3 record. They were coached by the new biology teacher Mr. John Welch. At the traditional Assembly, the Hoffman Award was presented to John Poirier, while the most valuable player trophy from radio station WMBP (Newburyport) went to Ray St. Pierre. At the seasonal football trophy dance, Philip Bateman received the most popular, football player award.

We'll always remember with pride our wrestling team, which had an undefeated season. John Field played a jolly Santa Claus at a gala Christmas Luncheon and party. The Co-tillion also added a highlight to our final year at I.H.S.

Let us not forget the pressure of College Boards and the suspense of waiting for acceptance from the schools and colleges to which we'd applied.

Awards to seniors included the D.A.R. Award for Excellence in History, Dennis Perry; the Harvard Book Award, John Poirier; D.A.R. Good Citizenship Girl, Linda Chamberlain; and the Betty Crocker Homemaker, Sherry Pedrick.

Our class again showed its unity when it put on the first musical at I.H.S. in lieu of the regular senior play. Bye, Bye Birdie was presented under the capable direction of Mr. Lucas and Mr. McDonald.

Another innovation is a Class Day booklet containing the verses for the gifts to the girls and gifts to the boys, as well as the will and the prophecy, formerly in the yearbook.

Together we look down the road to the future with Class Day and the ultimate day of graduation still to encounter. Our senior year, a happy one, has been guided by our advisors — Miss Fournier, Mr. Hayes, and Mr. McKenzie.

We now add a heartfelt thank-you to our understanding faculty for their encouragement and interest in us. Indeed, we can say with pride that a wonderful school has endeavored to equip us well to tackle the outside world which awaits us tomorrow. The future will tell us if we can look back to these past four years with a sense of accomplishment.

"Our seniors turned, what could have been a team with a poor record, into a very successful team that well represented our school, both on and off the field. This leadership and example will also play an important role in the future of other Ipswich teams."

Mr. Jack Welch

"It would be difficult to single out anyone as an outstanding player . . . linemen receive little if any recognition even though they deserve the greatest amount of applause. . . . To all the seniors let me say in Navy terminology, "Well done" and best of luck in the future in any endeavor that they may pursue . . . let's continue with the traditions that these departing seniors have left with us.

Whenever there is a project at Ipswich High, from prom to yearbook, the merchants of Ipswich have been generous sponsors. Not only have they vigorously supported our extracurricula activities, but many have given students an opportunity to fulfill their school requirements through the cooperative program. To these people, the Class of 1965 gives its thanks and leaves the hope that we may in the future show our sincere appreciation for their assistance.

We would like to give a special thanks to our class photographer, Mr. Edward Burke of the House of Hinlin, for his wonderful cooperation.
